Re: United States v. Otoniel Rodriguez,
Docket No.1:25-cr-00093-MMG-1

Dated: May 29, 2025

Your Honor:

The defense respectfully submits this letter on behalf of defendant Otoniel Rodriguez to request, with the Government's consent, a 60-day adjournment of Mr. Rodriguez's sentencing, currently scheduled for June 12, 2025, along with all related submission deadlines.

This request is made because the defense is still in the process of providing information to the Probation Department and, more significantly, requires additional time to prepare Mr. Rodriguez's sentencing submission. Additionally, defense counsel will be engaged in trial next month, further necessitating the requested adjournment.

This is the first request for an adjournment of sentencing. As noted, the defense has conferred with Assistant U.S. Attorney Adam Sowlati, who consents to this application on behalf of the Government. Accordingly, the defense respectfully requests that Mr. Rodriguez's sentencing and all related deadlines be adjourned for 60 days.

Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Chad D. Seigel
